

Position Announcement:
Assistant Professor of Public Policy, University of California, Riverside

The School of Public Policy at UCR is seeking to hire an Assistant Professor of Public Policy. We are open to the area of scholarship but have a particular interest in energy and environmental policy, housing policy, and immigration policy, the policies of heightened importance in Southern California. The School of Public Policy values public policies that promote efficiency, equity, prosperity, and justice; we are particularly interested in scholars who apply these principles in their research and teaching. We are seeking candidates with clear evidence of scholarship on public policy issues.

Applicants must have an earned doctorate by the time of appointment in a relevant field and demonstrated excellence in research and teaching. Work experience in a public policy setting and/or public policy training is valued. Instructional and mentoring activities include teaching four, 10-week courses per academic year and guiding the research of undergraduate and graduate students.

The School of Public Policy values diversity among its faculty and strongly encourages applications from women and members of underrepresented groups.

The Assistant Professor Series is a full-time position with the rights and responsibilities of membership in the Academic Senate. Appointments and reappointments are limited to a maximum term of two-years. The total University service with this title may not exceed eight years except as provided in APM - 133-12-b and 133-12-c https://www.ucop.edu/academic-personnel-programs/\_files/apm/apm-133.pdf. Advancement through the faculty and non-senate academic ranks at the University of California is through a series of structured, merit-based evaluations, occurring every 2-3 years, each of which includes substantial peer input. Teaching, scholarly professional achievement, and activities, and university and public service constitute the criteria for advancement.

All materials must be uploaded using UCR's on-line application system via <https://aprecruit.ucr.edu/JPF01753>. To ensure full consideration, complete applications including cover letter, CV, writing samples, a research statement, a teaching statement, evidence of teaching excellence, statement of past and/or planned future contributions to advancing diversity and inclusive excellence, and at least 3 letters of recommendation should be received by October 1, 2023. Review of applicants will continue until the position is filled. The appointment will commence as early as July 1, 2024, or as late as September 1, 2024, per negotiation with the candidate.

The posted UC salary scales, <https://www.ucop.edu/academic-personnel-programs/compensation/index.html>, set the minimum pay determined by rank and/or step at appointment. See Table 1 https://www.ucop.edu/academic-personnel-programs/\_files/2023-24/oct-2023-acad-salary-scales/t1.pdf for the salary range. The salary range for this appointment is $70,900 to $92,800 annually. "Off-scale salaries" and other components of pay, i.e., a salary that is higher than the published system-wide salary at the designated rank and step, are offered when necessary to meet competitive conditions.

UCR is a world-class research university with an exceptionally diverse undergraduate student body. Its mission is explicitly linked to providing routes to educational success for underrepresented and first-generation college students. A commitment to this mission is a preferred qualification.

The University of California is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. All qualified candidates will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, age, disability, protected veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by law.

As a University employee, you will be required to comply with all applicable University policies and/or collective bargaining agreements, as may be amended from time to time. Federal, state, or local government directives may impose additional requirements.
